W. S. FARMER.

Helene Reecka, with Osman Stock Co., at Capital Theatre, week of March 26. Prices, 10, 20, 30c.

The Osman Stock Company, which comes to the Capital Theatre Monday, March 26, for a week's engagement, is said to be one of the best repertoire companies on the road. Monday night "Down Mobile," a play entirely new to this territory, will be the company's offering.

The Wilmington, N. C., Messenger, of November 7, says: "Last night one of the largest audiences that has ever been in the Academy, witnessed the initial performance of this excellent company. The bill was 'Down Mobile,' and was received with enthusiasm by a well-pleased audience. The company is even stronger than when here before, and there is the same evidence of culture and refinement in their work. Miss Reicks, as Josephine Edgerly, had a part which suited her intense nature, which she handled in her usual clever and conscientious style. The repertoire of the Osman Stock Company has been chosen to give this beautiful and talented artist, scope for her versatile talent—one so different from another. The specialties were far above the ordinary."

Ladies free Monday night under usual conditions. Ladies free ticket limited to 150 seats. Sale opens Saturday morning.

SI PLUNKARD.

Si Plunkard, with J. C. Lewis in the title role, comes to Capital Theatre, Saturday matinee and night, March 24. The play teems with quips of human nature, and one is brought very close to humanity without its civilized frills, without its passions subdued by dissimulation, with all its faults and some of its vices. The sentiments are pure, clean and wholesome, with a constant reminder of boyhood or girlhood days which at times brings just a suspicion of moisture to the eyes. Si Plunkard brings a cast of exceptional merit, each artist being carefully selected for their special adaptability to the roles assigned them. The play abounds in bright specialties by the funny comedians and the two little children as little Clover and Primrose, who never fail to capture the audience.

THE BEST SAFEGUARD.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bed time when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION ARRANGES PROGRAM FOR UNION SERVICES NEXT WEEK AND FOR CENSUS OF CITY.

The Ministerial Association of Frankfort met on Thursday afternoon and completed plans for the special union meetings and religious census which will be done next week.

The entire program arranged is as follows:

1. Monday, 7:30 p. m., at the Baptist Church.
2. Tuesday, 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., religious census to be taken of whole city.
3. Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., at Southern Presbyterian Church.
4. Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., special prayer meetings in all the churches.
5. Thursday, 7:30 p. m., at the Methodist Church.
6. Friday, 7:30 p. m., at the Christian Church. At this meeting a full report of the canvass will be given. Dr. Gross Alexander, of Louisville, will address the meeting on Thursday and Friday evenings. The religious census will be the first of a yearly series which is to be taken in Frankfort to determine the strength of the various denominations and to ascertain what percentage of the families of the city are in need of Bibles and to further the Sunday-school work.

The city has been divided into seven districts and each church will name a corps of eight workers to canvass each district. Each band will elect a captain and go to work in a systematic manner. The districts into which the city has been divided are as follows:

- First District—South Frankfort, east of Shelby street.
- Second District—South Frankfort, west of Shelby street.
- Third District—Bellepoint and High View.
- Fourth District—Both sides of and west of Wilkinson street.
- Fifth District—From Wilkinson street, east to St. Clair.
- Sixth District—From St. Clair to High streets.
- Seventh District—All of the city east of High street.

Blanks have been prepared which the canvassers will use upon which are questions to be asked of the heads of families. These are headed: Membership in what church? Church preference? S. S. attended? S. S. preferred? If a Bible needed? Remarks.

It is believed that the result of this movement will be to bring the many churches and Sunday-schools of the city into closer relation with the people at large. It will afford a ground for work more extensive Sunday-school building and the distribution of Bibles, which is one of the prime objects.
